Case No.: 2:16-cv-02679-APG-CWH

AMENDED STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER RE:
CONFIDENTIAL AND/OR PRIVILEGED INFORMATION;
[PROPOSED] ORDER THEREON

1 IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between the Parties to the above-captioned case, 2 by and through their respective counsel of record, that in order to facilitate the exchange of 3 information and documents which may be subject to confidentiality limitations on disclosure 4 due to federal laws, state laws, privacy rights, and trade secret protections, the Parties stipulate 5 as follows:

6 1. In this Stipulated Protective Order, the words set forth below shall have the 7 following meanings:

8 a. “Proceeding” means the above-entitled civil lawsuit, Case No. 2:16-cv-
9 02679-APG-CWH.

10 b. “Court” means the assigned judge in this lawsuit filed on November 22, 11 2016, in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Case No. 2:16-cv-02679-
12 APG-CWH.

13 c. “Confidential” means any information which is in the possession of a 14 Designating Party who believes in good faith that such information is entitled to confidential 15 treatment under applicable law.

16 d. “Confidential Materials” means any Documents, Testimony or 17 Information that a Designating Party believes in good faith are subject to confidentiality 18 limitations on disclosure under applicable federal laws, state laws, federal or state constitution, 19 privacy rights of either party, privacy rights of third parties (including, but not limited to, 20 Defendant’s owners, officers, directors, managers, employees, vendors, suppliers, and 21 contractors, as well as Defendant’s residents), and/or trade secret protections.

22 e. “Disclose” or “Disclosed” or “Disclosure” means to reveal, divulge, give, 23 or make available Materials, or any part thereof, or any information contained therein.

24 f. “Documents” means all materials within the full scope of Rule 34 of the 25 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including, but not limited, any typed or handwritten writings 26 and transcriptions, such as notes, memoranda, calendars, letters, emails, text messages, as well 27 as any electronically stored information that is stored on a computer, electronic or mobile device 28 or any type of computer readable storage media and capable of being reproduced by printed

1 representation, which have been produced in discovery in this Proceeding by any person, 2 including any copies, reproductions, or summaries of all or any part of the foregoing.

3 g. “Information” means the content of Documents or Testimony.

4 h. “Testimony” means all depositions, declarations or other testimony taken 5 or used in this Proceeding.

6 2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) and Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 26(b)(5), the production
7 of a privileged or work-product-protected Document, whether inadvertent or otherwise, is not a 8 waiver of privilege or protection from discovery in this case or in any other federal or state 9 proceeding. For example, the mere production of privileged or work-product-protected 10 Documents in this case as part of a document production of any size is not itself a waiver in this 11 case or in any other federal or state proceeding. The receiving party shall not assert a claim or 12 argument in this or any other court or legal proceeding that the producing party’s act of 13 inadvertently producing the information constituted a waiver of the producing party’s privilege 14 or other protection over the information.

15 3. Further, in the event of inadvertent production of privileged or work product-16 protected Documents, the producing party shall notify the receiving party in writing of the 17 inadvertent production as soon as practicable following the producing party’s discovery of the 18 inadvertent production. Within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of a written request for return 19 of privileged or work product-protected Documents inadvertently produced, the receiving party 20 shall promptly return, destroy or delete from its databases all copies of the specified information 21 and shall make reasonable efforts to retrieve the information if the receiving party previously 22 provided the information to third parties. If there is a disagreement as to whether the specified 23 information is privileged or subject to protection, the receiving party must immediately present 24 the information under seal to the Court for a determination. Until the Court makes a 25 determination of the privileged or protected status of the information, the receiving party shall 26 not use in any way (including, but not limited to, using the information in depositions or at trial) 27 nor disclose the information to other parties. The court shall impose an appropriate sanction in 28 the event that the Court determines that the Documents are not privileged or work product-

1 protected Documents, but were so designated in a manner which had an inappropriate adverse 2 effect on the other party's right to use the information.

3 4. The entry of this Stipulated Protective Order does not alter, waive, modify, or 4 abridge any right, privilege or protection otherwise available to any Party with respect to the 5 discovery of matters, including but not limited to any Party's right to assert the attorney-client
6 privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or other privileges, or any Party's right to contest 7 any such assertion.

8 a. For Documents (apart from transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or 9 trial proceedings), the receiving Party must affix the legend "Confidential" on each page of any 10 Document containing such designated Confidential Material.

11 b. For Testimony given in depositions concerning Confidential Material, 12 either Party may either:

13 i. identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, all 14 "Confidential" Testimony, by specifying all portions of the Testimony that qualify 15 as "Confidential;" or

16 ii. designate the entirety of the Testimony at the deposition as 17 "Confidential" (before the deposition is concluded) with the right to identify more 18 specific portions of the Testimony as to which protection is sought within 30 days 19 following receipt of the deposition transcript. In circumstances where portions of 20 the deposition Testimony are designated for protection, the transcript pages
21 containing "Confidential" Information may be separately bound by the court 22 reporter, who must affix to the top of each page the legend "Confidential," as 23 instructed by the Designating Party.

24 c. For Information produced in some form other than Documents, and for 25 any other tangible items, including, without limitation, compact discs or DVDs, the Designating 26 Party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 27 Information or item is stored the legend "Confidential." If only portions of the Information or 28 item warrant protection, the Designating Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 1 “Confidential” portions.

2 5. Access to and/or Disclosure of Confidential Materials designated as 3 “Confidential” shall be permitted only to the following persons:

4 a. the Court;

5 b. Attorneys of record in the Proceedings and their affiliated attorneys, 6 paralegals, clerical and secretarial staff employed by such attorneys who are actively involved in 7 the Proceedings and are not employees of any Party. Provided, however, that each non-lawyer
8 given access to Confidential Materials shall be advised that such Materials are being Disclosed 9 pursuant to, and are subject to, the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and that they may 10 not be Disclosed other than pursuant to its terms;

11 c. those officers, directors, partners, members, employees and agents of all 12 non-designating Parties that counsel for such Parties deems necessary to aid counsel in the 13 prosecution and defense of this Proceeding; provided, however, that prior to the Disclosure of 14 Confidential Materials to any such officer, director, partner, member, employee or agent, counsel 15 for the Party making the Disclosure shall deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order to 16 such person, shall explain that such person is bound to follow the terms of such Order, and shall 17 secure the signature of such person on a statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A;

18 d. court reporters in this Proceeding (whether at depositions, hearings, or any 19 other proceeding);

20 e. any deposition, trial or hearing witness in the Proceeding who previously 21 has had access to the Confidential Materials, or who is currently or was previously an officer, 22 director, partner, member, employee or agent of an entity that has had access to the Confidential 23 Materials; and

24 f. outside experts or expert consultants consulted by the undersigned Parties 25 or their counsel in connection with the Proceeding, whether or not retained to testify at any oral 26 hearing; provided, however, that prior to the Disclosure of Confidential Materials to any such 27 expert or expert consultant, counsel for the Party making the Disclosure shall deliver a copy of 28 this Stipulated Protective Order to such person, shall explain its terms to such person, and shall

1 secure the signature of such person on a statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. It 2 shall be the obligation of counsel, upon learning of any breach or threatened breach of this 3 Stipulated Protective Order by any such expert or expert consultant, to promptly notify counsel 4 for the Designating Party of such breach or threatened breach.

5 6. Confidential Materials shall be used by the persons receiving them only for the 6 purposes of preparing for, conducting, participating in the conduct of, and/or prosecuting and/or 7 defending the Proceeding, and not for any business or other purpose whatsoever.

8 7. Any Party to the Proceeding (or other person subject to the terms of this Stipulated 9 Protective Order) may ask the Court, after appropriate notice to the other Parties to the 10 Proceeding, to modify or grant relief from any provision of this Stipulated Protective Order.

11 8. Entering into, agreeing to, and/or complying with the terms of this Stipulated 12 Protective Order shall not:

13 a. operate as an admission by any person that any particular Document, 14 Testimony or Information marked “Confidential” contains or reflects trade secrets, proprietary, 15 confidential or competitively sensitive business, commercial, financial or personal information; 16 or

17 b. prejudice in any way the right of any Party (or any other person subject to 18 the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order):

19 i. to seek a determination by the Court of whether any particular 20 Confidential Material should be subject to protection as “Confidential” under the 21 terms of this Stipulated Protective Order; or

22 ii. to seek relief from the Court on appropriate notice to all other 23 Parties to the Proceeding from any provision(s) of this Stipulated Protective 24 Order, either generally or as to any particular Document, Material or Information.

25 9. Any Party to the Proceeding who has not executed this Stipulated Protective Order 26 as of the time it is presented to the Court for signature may thereafter become a Party to this 27 Stipulated Protective Order by its counsel’s signing and dating a copy thereof and filing the same 28 with the Court, and serving copies of such signed and dated copy upon the other Parties to this

1 Stipulated Protective Order.

2 10. Any Information that may be produced by a non-Party witness in discovery in the 3 Proceeding pursuant to subpoena or otherwise may be designated by the receiving Party as 4 “Confidential” under the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, and any such designation by 5 the receiving Party may have the same force and effect, and create the same duties and 6 obligations, as if made by one of the undersigned Parties hereto. Any such designation shall also 7 function as a consent by such producing Party to the authority of the Court in the Proceeding to 8 resolve and conclusively determine any motion or other application made by any person or Party 9 with respect to such designation, or any other matter otherwise arising under this Stipulated 10 Protective Order.

11 11. If any person subject to this Stipulated Protective Order who has custody of any 12 Confidential Materials receives a subpoena or other process (“Subpoena”) from any government 13 or other person or entity demanding production of Confidential Materials, the recipient of the 14 Subpoena shall promptly give notice of the same by electronic mail transmission, followed by 15 either express mail or overnight delivery to counsel of record for the Designating Party, and shall 16 furnish such counsel with a copy of the Subpoena. Upon receipt of this notice, the Designating 17 Party may, in its sole discretion and at its own cost, move to quash or limit the Subpoena, 18 otherwise oppose production of the Confidential Materials, and/or seek to obtain confidential
19 treatment of such Confidential Materials from the subpoenaing person or entity to the fullest 20 extent available under law. The recipient of the Subpoena may not produce any Documents, 21 Testimony or Information pursuant to the Subpoena prior to the date specified for production on 22 the Subpoena.

23 12. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed to preclude either 24 Party from asserting in good faith that certain Confidential Materials require additional 25 protection. The Parties shall meet and confer to agree upon the terms of such additional 26 protection.

27 13. If, after execution of this Stipulated Protective Order, any Confidential Materials 28 submitted under the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order is Disclosed to any person other

1 than in the manner authorized by this Stipulated Protective Order, the Party responsible for the 2 Disclosure shall bring all pertinent facts relating to the Disclosure of such Confidential Materials
3 to the immediate attention of the other Party's attorney.

4 14. This Stipulated Protective Order is entered into without prejudice to the right of 5 any Party to knowingly waive the applicability of this Stipulated Protective Order to any 6 Confidential Materials designated by that Party. If the Designating Party uses Confidential 7 Materials in a non-Confidential manner, then the Designating Party shall advise that the 8 designation no longer applies.

9 15. Where any Confidential Materials, or Information derived from Confidential 10 Materials, is included in any motion or other proceeding governed by the Federal Rules of Civil 11 Procedure filed in Court, the party shall follow the federal rules pertaining to the filing of 12 documents under seal.

13 16. The Parties shall meet and confer regarding the procedures for use of Confidential 14 Materials at trial and shall move the Court for entry of an appropriate order.

15 17. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall affect the admissibility into 16 evidence of Confidential Materials, or abridge the rights of any person to seek judicial review or 17 to pursue other appropriate judicial action with respect to any ruling made by the Court 18 concerning the issue of the status of Protected Material.

19 18. This Stipulated Protective Order shall continue to be binding after the conclusion 20 of this Proceeding and all subsequent proceedings arising from this Proceeding, except that a 21 Party may seek the written permission of the Designating Party or may move the Court for relief 22 from the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order. To the extent permitted by law, the Court 23 shall retain jurisdiction to enforce, modify, or reconsider this Stipulated Protective Order, even 24 after the Proceeding is terminated.

25 19. Within thirty (30) days after the settlement or other termination of the Proceeding, 26 the undersigned Parties shall have thirty (30) days to either (a) promptly return to the Designating 27 Party's counsel all Confidential Materials and all copies thereof, except that counsel for each 28 Party may maintain in their files, in continuing compliance with the terms of this Stipulated

1 Protective Order, all work product, and one copy of each pleading filed with the Court, (b) agree
2 with counsel for the Designating Party upon appropriate methods for certification of destruction 3 or other disposition of such Confidential Materials, or (c) as to any Documents, Testimony or 4 other Information not addressed by sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), file a motion seeking a Court
5 order regarding proper preservation of such Materials. To the extent permitted by law, the Court 6 shall retain continuing jurisdiction to review and rule upon the motion referred to in sub-7 paragraph (c) herein. To the extent that the file retention policies of the State Bar of Nevada are 8 inconsistent herewith, the file retention policies of the State Bar of Nevada shall control.

9 20. After this Stipulated Protective Order has been signed by counsel for all Parties, 10 it shall be presented to the Court for entry. Counsel agree to be bound by the terms set forth 11 herein with regard to any Confidential Materials that have been produced before the Court signs 12 this Stipulated Protective Order.

13 21. The Parties and all signatories to the Certification attached hereto as Exhibit A 14 agree to be bound by this Stipulated Protective Order pending its approval and entry by the Court.
15 In the event that the Court modifies this Stipulated Protective Order, or in the event that the Court 16 enters a different Protective Order, the Parties agree to be bound by this Stipulated Protective 17 Order until such time as the Court may enter such a different Order. It is the Parties' intent to be
